

W.P.No.7830/2016

03.05.2016

Petitioner – Shri Anand Krishna Trivedi appears in person.

Shri Siddharth Seth, Advocate for Shri Akshay Dharmadhikari, Advocate for the respondents.

We find no reason to entertain the reliefs as claimed in this petition. Enough measures are being taken to rationalize the docket load and including to explore the possibility of posting of some special category cases for hearing during the ensuing Court vacation. Nothing more is required to be said in this petition.

The petitioner, who is appearing in person was asked whether he would like his cases to be heard during vacation. He assured that he will furnish the list of such cases in the Registry, in particular, of the category of cases, which will be permitted to be taken-up during the vacation. That assurance is accepted.

He further undertakes that he will not ask for adjournment whenever his cases are listed for hearing.

If this undertaking is breached, costs may be imposed for filing such frivolous petition in the name of public interest litigation.

Disposed of accordingly.
