

THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH

RULES, 2008

FOREWORD

The State of Madhya Pradesh was formed by the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, on 1st November, 1956 and the High Court of Judicature at Nagpur was deemed to be the High Court of the State of Madhya Pradesh with its Principal Seat at Jabalpur as per notified order of the President issued under the States Reorganisation Act, 1956. The Chief Justice of Madhya Pradesh also passed order creating temporary benches at Indore and Gwalior with effect from 1st of November, 1956. The rules with respect to practice and procedure of the High Court of Judicature at Nagpur, with necessary modifications, applied to the High Court of Madhya Pradesh by virtue of Section 54 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, and these rules have continued to be in force in the High Court of Madhya Pradesh since 1st of November, 1956.

During the last fifty years, Judges and Advocates have experienced the working of the Rules in practice and while acknowledging the great wisdom behind the rules, have felt the necessity of altering the rules for ensuring that justice is delivered to the people of Madhya Pradesh with greater speed and substantial justice is not thwarted by unnecessary technical rules.

With this end in view, a Sub Committee comprising Judges and Senior Advocates with experience and a Secretary, who has been Registrar (Judicial) for several years, started drafting the new Rules from June 2007. This Sub Committee met almost on all Saturdays and Sundays for more than a year in the committee room of the Principal Seat of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh at Jabalpur and prepared the draft rules. The draft rules were thereafter considered by a larger Rule Committee comprising more number of Judges and Seniors Advocates with long experience and the draft rules were amended after due deliberation. The draft rules were thereafter circulated to all the Judges of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh and to the Presidents of the four High Court Bar Associations at Jabalpur, Indore and Gwalior, inviting suggestions. The suggestions made by the Judges and the Bar Associations were considered by the Rule Committee and those suggestions which were found practically feasible were accepted and the new Rules were finalised by the Rule Committee on 7th of September, 2008, with the prior authorization of the Full Court of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh.

(iii)

The new Rules called “The High Court of Madhya Pradesh Rules, 2008”, however, do not contain the Rules to be made by the High Court under the special Acts and hence the existing rules made by the High Court under the special Acts will continue to remain in force till the new rules are made by the Rule Committee.

This book contains not only the High Court of Madhya Pradesh Rules, 2008 but also notified orders issued by the President and the orders issued by the Chief Justice of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh in the preface of the book and the different forms, as revised, in the Appendix of the Book.

The High Court of Madhya Pradesh Rules, 2008 will come into force from such date as the Chief Justice may, by notification in the official gazette, appoint and it has been proposed by the Rule Committee that the Chief Justice should notify 1st of November, 2008 as the date on which the High Court of Madhya Pradesh Rules, 2008 will come into force.

Chief Justice.

FROM THE DESK OF CHAIRMAN, DRAFTING SUB-COMMITTEE.

The Nagpur High Court was established on 2nd of January, 1936 by virtue of the Letters Patent, for the state of Central Province and Berar, at Nagpur. The existing set of Rules, in the High Court of Madhya Pradesh was inherited from Nagpur High Court. Later, the Constitution of India came into being on 26th of January, 1950. In the year 1951 Nagpur High Court promulgated Rules for proceedings under articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India. A separate set of Rules for the writs in the nature of Habeas Corpus were also introduced. On 1st of November, 1956 New State of Madhya Pradesh was formed and the Principal Seat of the High Court was shifted from Nagpur to Jabalpur. However, in view of the mandate of section 54 of the States Reorganization Act, 1956, the High Court of Madhya Pradesh continued with old set of Rules. Thus, the main body of rules governing practice and procedure in the High Court of Madhya Pradesh have been in vogue for past 70 years or so.

These Rules represented the so called Nagpur pattern of working in the Registry. Under this system, different branches and sections in the Registry were constituted on the basis of various stages, a case undergoes, during its life cycle. Accordingly, the Registry was divided into various sections like Filing section, Checker section, Cause list section, Notice section, Decree section and so on. The main drawback of this pattern was that it was extremely difficult to trace the record of a case. There was no way to fix responsibility, in case of a lapse.

Meanwhile, laws of practice and procedure in the Courts- on both Civil and Criminal sides underwent sea change. Successive Chiefs of Justice issued administrative orders and directions to fill the gaps in existing Rules as also to bring them in tune with the current trends of litigation in the High Court. True it is that sporadic amendments, as and when required, were incorporated in the Rules, yet, the High Court continued to function primarily on the basis of the administrative instructions, issued from time to time.

In the year 1996, under the orders of the Chief Justice, Delhi Pattern of working was introduced in the Registry. In this system, the Registry was divided into three main branches viz. civil, criminal and writ, on the basis of the nature of cases. Various sections like Copying section, Supreme Court section, Paper-book section, Record Room etc., common to all branches, were also constituted. Every case was allotted to a specific Dealing Assistant, who was made responsible for complying with all orders of the Court. This paradigm shift in the working of the Registry, however, did not get reflected in the Rules, as it was not incorporated therein.

By the year 2005, an estimated 80% of the work of the High Court was being conducted in accordance with the directions, issued by the Chief Justice and the existing Rules had almost become redundant. Since, these directions were not codified; an integrated or comprehensive picture of internal working of the High Court was not available to the stakeholders.

Hon'ble the Chief Justice Shri A.K. Patnaik realized the need to draft new set Rules and a meeting of the High Court Rule Making Committee was convened on 27th of September, 2006. A Drafting Sub-Committee comprising Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S.Jha, Hon'ble Shri Justice K.K.Lahoti, Shri Ravish Agrawal, the then Advocate General of Chhattisgarh, Shri T.S.Ruprah, Additional Advocate General and Shri Girish Shrivastava, Advocate was constituted. Shri C.V.Sirpurkar, Registrar (Judicial) was nominated as Secretary to the Sub-committee. The Sub-committee was entrusted with the task of taking into consideration the existing rules of the High Court, the draft Rules framed by the Secretary, Rules made by the Chhattisgarh High Court and the Case Flow Management Rules, 2006, to replace existing Rules. Subsequently, Shri Rajendra Tiwari, Senior Advocate and myself were nominated to the Sub-Committee. Shri Girish Shrivastava was substituted by Shri R.N.Shukla, Senior Advocate. Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S. Jha demitted office in October, 2007 and I succeeded his Lordship as Chairman of the Sub-Committee. After Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S.Jha laid down office, Hon'ble Shri Justice Rajendra Menon and Shri A.K.Saxena were inducted in the sub-committee.

The main challenge before the Sub-committee was to draft Rules that were most suitable for the requirements of the High Court and not to succumb to the temptation of drafting pedantic Rules, using flowery language. The Rules had to be clear, concise and unequivocal. They were to be drafted in such a manner that equilibrium between the bench, the bar and the registry was not disturbed. A fine balance between the requirements of law on one hand and practical difficulties on the other had to be struck. The Sub-committee was also required to keep the ground realities of working in the High Court in mind. A conscious attempt was made not to plagiarize the Rules from other High Courts.

The Sub-Committee met on almost all Saturdays and Sundays and also on some other holidays, since June, 2007 till the end of August, 2008. No less than 75 meetings of the Sub-Committee took place, each lasting 7 hours on an average. Most of the meetings were held in the Committee Room of the High Court in the Principal Seat at Jabalpur. The Secretary of the sub-committee used to prepare a draft of rules on laptop computer during the working days and submitted it for approval before the sub-committee, during holidays. The information and communication technology was put to full use in drafting the Rules. During the meetings, the Rules were displayed on the screen with the help of Projector. To facilitate working of the sub-committee, a comparative draft was presented. On the right hand side proposed rule was typed and on left existing rule was displayed. The portions to be deleted and new rules and proposed amendments were shown in different colours. A few meetings were held through video conferencing.

The Sub-committee deliberated intensively on each word, phrase and rule, taking into consideration relevant statutes and pronouncements of the Supreme Court and our own High Court. The sub-committee also consulted Law lexicon and myriad dictionaries so as to ensure that grammatical mistakes were eliminated. Due attention was also paid to punctuation marks. Required statutes and case law was made available to the sub-committee instantaneously, by using law related software like SCC online, AIR and STPL. Every member and even the Secretary of the sub-committee were given complete freedom to present their view point.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not make a mention of Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S. Jha, who was my predecessor as Chairman of the Sub Committee.

The work of framing of the rules had started under his stewardship. It was his legacy which I carried forward. I express my gratitude to him for laying down the foundation of the work which the Committee had to further proceed with.

Brother Lahoti, Brother Menon and Brother Saxena were source of inspiration to me and they throughout very actively participated in every meeting of the Sub Committee alongwith Senior Advocates Shri Rajendra Tiwari and Shri Ravish Agarwal. All of them undertook their homework very seriously and my burden was considerably lightened. It was their immensely encouraging contribution and sincere dedication that paved the path of completing the work, assigned to us, in time. I can never forget their sincere co-operation and intellectual assistance in the drafting of the present Rules.

Brother Lahoti impressed me with his eye for details and innovative ideas, which often provided solution to the tricky problems. His experience of working as a lawyer in trial Courts has provided him rare insight. Brother Menon's cheerful disposition and equanimity had a calming influence on the proceedings of the Sub-committee. His superior knowledge and practical experience on writ side was of great help during the deliberations of the Sub-committee. Brother Saxena with his vast experience of working in the Law Department, as a trial Judge and later as a High Court Judge, single handedly took care of the rules on criminal side. He continued to amaze me with his uncanny ability to detect mistakes in the draft.

Shri Rajendra Tiwari and Shri Ravish Agrawal Senior Advocates deserve special thanks as they sacrificed their lucrative practice and attended every meeting of the Sub-committee. Shri Rajendra Tiwari with his command over English language saw to it that the Rules were lucid and error free. He deservedly earned the soubriquet of Mr. Wren because of his proficiency in English grammar. Shri Ravish Agrawal was the last word as far as rules on the civil side were concerned. His dedication to the task at hand was unsurpassed. He participated in the meetings with full vigour, inspite of undergoing bypass surgery in December, 2007.

At this juncture I must acknowledge the contribution made by the Secretary Shri C.V. Sirpurkar, who worked tirelessly in multiple capacities as draftsman, research assistant and computer operator to the Sub-Committee. He entered all the relevant judgments, administrative directions and circulars in his laptop computer and made them available to the Sub-committee immediately. We benefited immensely from his long experience of working as Registrar (Judicial) of the High Court.

Meanwhile, the Rule Committee, which originally comprised Hon'ble the Chief Justice as Chairman, Hon'ble Shri Justice Deepak Verma, Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S. Jha, Hon'ble Shri Justice A.K. Mishra, Hon'ble Shri Justice K. K. Lahoti, The Advocate General, the Chairman State Bar Council, the President High Court Bar Association Jabalpur and Shri Rajendra Tiwari, Senior Advocate, was reconstituted from time to time. After transfer of Hon'ble Shri Justice Deepak Verma to the Karnataka High Court and the retirement of Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S. Jha, Hon'ble Shri Justice R.S. Garg, the Administrative Judge and Hon'ble Shri Justice Dipak Misra were nominated to the Rule Committee. Later Shri B.L. Pavecha and Shri R.D. Jain, Senior Advocates were included as representatives of the Benches at Indore and Gwalior respectively. Hon'ble Shri Justice S.S. Samvatsar was inducted as member of the Committee on 11th August, 2008.

The Rule Committee met as many as 5 times to finalize the Rules. In the Rule Committee the Chief Justice Shri A.K. Patnaik, added to the completeness of the Rules. My esteemed brothers Shri R.S. Garg, Administrative Judge, Shri Dipak Misra and Shri Arun Mishra, Shri S.S. Samvatsar and the Senior Advocates Shri B.L. Pavecha and Shri R.D. Jain painstakingly went through each rule drafted by the sub-committee and made numerous extremely valuable suggestions, which were duly incorporated in the Rules. I am indebted to them.

In the end I wish to express my sincere gratitude to our Chief Justice Hon'ble Shri A.K. Patnaik, without whose initiative and guidance the exercise of rule making would not have taken off, much less completed. His Lordship was constant source of encouragement and inspiration to all of us.

The magnitude of his Lordship's contribution can be gauged from the fact that such gigantic exercise was undertaken in the High Court after a lapse of at least 70 years, if not more.

We have done our work. The Rules are in your hands. Now, it is for you to formulate your opinion thereon. If there be any shortcomings, I owe them personally and would welcome all suggestions in this regard. If the effort is considered to be worthwhile, the credit must be collectively given to all the members of the Sub-committee and the Rule Committee.

HISTORY & CONSTITUTION OF THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH

The present state of Madhya Pradesh was originally created as Central Province on 2/11/1861, as Judicial Commission's territory and was placed under the administration of Judicial Commissioner. At that time, the Judicial Commissioner's Court at Nagpur was the highest Court of the territory. When the Central Province was converted into a Governor's province in the year 1921, it became entitled to a full-fledged High Court for administration of Justice. However, financial & administrative difficulties, resulted in denial of a High Court to the province, for a period of about 15 years. In the year 1933, Berar, hitherto a part of Nizam's state of Hyderabad, was transferred to the Central Province, for administration. This gave the state its new name "Central Provinces & Berar". Thereafter, by virtue of the Letters Patent dated 2nd of January 1936, issued under Section 108 of the Government of India Act, 1915, by King Emperor, George the Fifth, Nagpur High Court was established for Central Provinces & Berar. The Letters Patent, whereunder the Nagpur High Court was constituted and invested with jurisdiction, continued in force even after adoption of the constitution of India on 26th of January 1950, by virtue of articles 225 & 372 thereof.

On 1st of November 1956, the States Reorganization Act was enacted and the new state of Madhya Pradesh was constituted under section 9 thereof. Sub-section (1) of Section 49 of the States Reorganization Act ordained that from the appointed day i.e., 1st of November 1956, the High Court exercising jurisdiction, in relation to the existing state of Madhya Pradesh, i.e. Nagpur High Court, shall be deemed to be the High Court for the present state of Madhya Pradesh. Thus, Nagpur High Court was not abolished but by a legal fiction it became The High Court for the new state of Madhya Pradesh, with its Principal seat at Jabalpur. The Chief Justice, vide order dated 1st of November 1956, issued in the exercise of powers under sub-section 3 of the States Reorganization Act, constituted temporary benches of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh at Indore and Gwalior. Later, by a Presidential Notification Dt. 28th of November 1968, issued in the exercise of the powers conferred by the Subsection (2) of section 51 of the States Reorganization Act, 1956, permanent benches of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh at Indore and Gwalior were established.

This state of affairs continued till 1st of November 2000, when the state of Chhattisgarh was carved out of the existing state of Madhya Pradesh, by virtue of the provisions of the Madhya Pradesh Reorganization Act, 2000 and the High Court of Chhattisgarh was established for that state with its seat at Bilaspur. The High Court of Madhya Pradesh, with its Principal Seat at Jabalpur, then became High Court for the successor state of Madhya Pradesh.
