D. O. No. H-11018/1/2015-Admn. III (LA)

Dear

Mohammad Fahim Anwar,

You may be aware that the Commercial Courts, Commercial Division and Commercial Appellate Division of the High Courts (Amendment) Ordinance, 2018, has been promulgated on 3rd May, 2018. A copy of the said Ordinance is enclosed. The said Ordinance, inter alia, provides for the following key amendments in the Commercial Courts, Commercial Division and Commercial Appellate Division of the High Courts Act, 2015:-

- (a) to change in the title of the Act to Commercial Courts Act, 2015 and define Commercial Appellate Courts which will act as an appellate forum at district Judge level to hear appeals from Commercial Courts (for territories other than the High Courts having ordinary original civil jurisdiction);
- (b) to reduce "specified value" in relation to a commercial dispute from one crore rupees to three lakh rupees by amendment in sub-section (1) (i) of section 2 of the Act;
- (c) to provide for enabling provisions to facilitate establishment of Commercial Courts at district level (in the territories over which the High Courts have Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction) by amending proviso to sub-section (1) of section 3 and vide further proviso enabling the State Government to specify such pecuniary value for Commercial Courts in aforementioned jurisdictions, which shall not be less than three lakh rupees and not more than the pecuniary jurisdiction exercisable by the said District Courts;
- (d) to enable the State Government in consultation with High Court to specify such pecuniary value which shall not be less than rupees 3 lakhs or such higher value, for the whole or part of the State as the case may be by Insertion of a new sub-section (1A) to section 3 of the Act;
- e) to enable the State Governments to establish Commercial Courts in Districts at levels below that of a District Judge;
- (f) to enable the State Governments, in consultation with the respective High Courts, to designate such number of Commercial Appellate Courts at District Judge level, as deemed necessary except the territories over which the High Courts have ordinary original civil jurisdiction by Insertion of new section 3A to the Act;

-: 2 :-

- (g) to enable the State Government with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court to appoint one or more persons having experience in dealing with commercial disputes to be the Judge or Judges, of a Commercial Court either at the level of District Judge or a court below the level of a District Judge by amendment in Section 3 (3) to the Act;
- (h) to provide a mechanism for Pre-Institution Mediation and Settlement by Insertion of a new chapter IIIA which provides that parties to a commercial disputes, which does not contemplate any urgent interim relief under the Act have to exhaust the remedy of Pre-Institution Mediation in a suit, through the Authorities constituted under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, before moving to court.

2. I would further like to draw your attention towards the provisions of section 17 of the Principal Act, which mandates the High Court that the statistical data regarding the number of suits, applications, appeals or writ petitions filed before the Commercial Court, Commercial Division, or Commercial Appellate Division, as the case may be, the pendency of such cases, the status of each case, and the number of cases disposed of, shall be maintained and updated every month by each Commercial Court, Commercial Division, Commercial Appellate Division and shall be published on the website of the relevant High Court. However, it has been noticed that, such data has not been uploaded on the High Courts website.

3. I shall be grateful if you kindly look into the matter personally and direct all the concerned to take necessary steps for implementation of the provisions of the said Ordinance in consultation with the State Governments wherever required. It is also requested that the Statistical data as stated in Section 17 of the Act may kindly be uploaded on the website of the High Court to make the implementation of the Ordinance a success.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Suresh Chandra)
