State of M.P., pertained to economic offenses and was not applicable to the present case. The Hon'ble Court held that there was no ground for interference with the order of the Single Judge, as it merely directed the authorities to consider the complaint filed by original Writ Petitioner in accordance with the law. The Court clarified that the Single Judge had not ordered the registration of an FIR against the appellants but had only required the authorities to examine the complaint. Miscellaneous Petition No. 2880 of 2024 M/s. Master Point and Another v. Smt. Sandhya Chouhan 2024 SCC OnLine MP 6456 Issue involved – The petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India challenges the order dated 20.05.2024 passed by the Arbitral Tribunal in Arbitration Case No. 2 of 2022. The core issue is the reliance of the Arbitral Tribunal on an inadequately stamped partnership deed dated 07.01.2010, despite prior acknowledgment that such a document is inadmissible under Section 35 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899. The petitioners argued that arbitration proceedings could not continue until the document was duly stamped, citing N.N. Global Mercantile Ltd. v. Indo Unique Flame Ltd. [2023 SCC Online SC 1666]. However, the Tribunal permitted the use of a photocopy of the deed as secondary evidence while rejecting the petitioners' plea to terminate the arbitration under Section 32(2)(c) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. This Hon'ble Court dismissed the petition, ruling that challenges to interlocutory orders of Arbitral Tribunal is not maintainable under Article 227 of the Constitution of India and such objection in pursuance can be raised post-award under Section 34 of the Act of 1996. (Page no.- 114 to 117) BANKING LAW 14. Central Bureau of Investigation and Another 2024 SCC OnLine MP 3729 Issue involved –Respondent No.2, Bank of Baroda, asserted that prior notice or an opportunity of hearing was unnecessary before filing the FIR, citing State Bank of India v. Rajesh Agrawal. The bank maintained that the Forensic Audit Report has not been invalidated. It emphasized that the complaint was filed with the consent of other lenders and that an SLP was pending before the Supreme Court, making premature quashing improper. This Hon'ble Court ruled that since proceedings against the principal borrower were quashed, charges against alleged accomplices could not stand. It found that procedural deficiencies in the forensic audit rendered it unreliable for prosecution. Consequently, the Court quashed FIR No. RC2222021A0003/2021 and all related proceedings, allowing all connected Miscellaneous Criminal Cases. However, the contentions raised by the Respondent Bank have been safeguarded by the Hon'ble Supreme Court wherein, the aforesaid decision has been stayed vide order dated 15/01/2025 in SLP (Criminal) 945 of 2025. (Page no.- 126 to 134)
		16. Writ Petition No. 17195 of 2020 Vijay Soni v. Bank of Baroda and Others MANU/MP/1920/2023 Issue involved – The petitioners challenged the constitutional validity of the RBI's 2016 Master Directions on 'Fraud Classification and Reporting,' arguing that unilateral classification of accounts as 'fraudulent' without prior notice violates natural justice and fundamental rights under Articles 14, 19(1)(g), and 21. The High Court, relying on a Supreme Court ruling in State Bank of India vs. Rajesh Agrawal, held that borrowers must be given an opportunity to be heard before such classification. Consequently, any fraudulent classification and related actions (e.g., FIRs) were quashed while allowing banks to proceed lawfully in accordance with law. (Page no.- 135 to 137)
		17. Writ Petition No. 27693 of 2021 Pramod Kumar Sethi and Others v. Bank of Baroda and Others MANU/MP/1920/2023 Issue involved – The petitioners sought restructuring of their loan under RBI's Resolution Framework 2.0 (issued due to COVID-19). They contested the Bank of Baroda's additional eligibility condition requiring accounts to be 'standard' on the date of invocation, arguing it contradicted RBI's circular. The court upheld the bank's policy, reasoning that it aligned with RBI guidelines and the resolution framework. Since the petitioners' accounts were declared NPA before they invoked restructuring, they were ineligible. The court dismissed the petition, affirming the bank's authority to set eligibility criteria. (Page no.- 138 to 145)

2.	WP/7260/2018	04.04.2018	Kewalram Jaswani Vs. IMC and Anr.	The Hon'ble High Court has ruled that, under Section 175 of the Madhya Pradesh Municipal Corporation Act, the Corporation possesses the authority to attach and sell the property in question for the recovery of outstanding property tax dues but the aforesaid provision of law does not provide for placing a lock over the premises which is being used by the tenant.

3.	WP/7298/2016	03.03.2017	Raman @ Gabbu. Vs. State of M.P.	The Hon'ble High Court has examined the legal and factual positions of the parties involved and concluded that the order does not mention any specific witness who had either received threats or had a reasonable apprehension of appearing in court due to fear of the petitioner. As such, the satisfaction recorded under Section 5(B) lacks objective consideration and is insufficient to support the decision, rendering it untenable.

State of M.P.	The Hon'ble High Court has observed that in cases registered under Section 328 of the IPC, a conviction cannot be sustained solely on the basis of oral evidence. (7)

6.	2010 (II) MPWN 36 CRR/594/2009	31.08.2009	Sunil @ Sonu Vs. Sarita Chawla.	The Hon'ble High Court has determined the question that whether the maintenance awarded is a protection order and on account or breach of protection order, the proceedings can be initiated against the petitioner under section 31 of the protection of women from domestic act, 2005 or not.
7.	2023 (1) MPWN 47 M.Cr.C/34970/2 022	19.12.2022	Naman Laddha Vs. State of M.P.	The Hon'ble High Court has interpreted and defined the provisions under Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9 of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956, and held that an act of complete illegality in the commission of the offence is equivalent to a false implication. Consequently, for such an act, the prosecuting officer may be held accountable for malicious prosecution.

8.	WA/1492/2019	20.09.2022	Smt. Asha Barak Vs. Smt. Anshu Malhotra and Ors.	The Hon'ble High Court, in interpreting the functions and powers of the Child Welfare Committee under Sections 30 and 37 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 (Act No. 2 of 2016), has issued comprehensive guidelines pertaining to the access and custody of children. These guidelines were issued by the Chief Justice of the Madhya Pradesh High Court in relation to the aforementioned matters.

9.	MP/3487/2023 & MP/31/2023	01.03.2024	Sanam Through Power of Attorney Holder Mr. Deepak Nagindas Mehta Vs. Priyanka.	The Hon'ble High Court distinguished the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Santhini v. Vijay Venkatesh , (2018) 1 SCC 1, by observing that, at the time of the said decision, neither the Mediation Rules, 2020 nor the Mediation Act, 2023 were in force. Consequently, the Court held that mediation through virtual conferencing is permissible in the present legal framework.
10.	M.Cr.C/15377/2 019	10.07.2024	Bheru Singh Vs. Dwarka and Ors.	The Hon'ble High Court has examined the maintainability, scope, and extent of powers conferred under Section 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Cr.P.C.) in cases where a civil suit is already pending. The Court has deliberated on the interplay between criminal and civil proceedings, addressing the legal implications of concurrent jurisdiction.

11.	M.Cr.C/17379/2022	22.02.2023	Daksha and Anr. Vs. State of M.P. and Anr.	That, It was held that the complainant had made broad and generalized allegations against the petitioners without specifying any distinct or particular role attributable to any individual accused or petitioner.
12.	(2023) 3 DMC 292 M.Cr.C/35596/2018 & M.Cr.C/16764/2019	17.08.2023	Rajan and Anr. Vs. State of M.P. and Anr. & Meera Vs. State of MP and Anr.	The Hon'ble High Court has observed that in cases where there is clear misuse of Section 498-A of the Indian Penal Code, it is imperative for the Court to exercise its inherent power under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code. This exercise of power is necessary to safeguard the interests of the husband's relatives involved in matrimonial disputes, thereby ensuring complete justice and preventing the abuse of legal proceedings.

13.	FA/975/2011	31.05.2024	Mamta Johar Vs. Sunil.	The Hon'ble High Court has distinguished that the irretrievable breakdown of a marriage, while not recognized as a ground for dissolution under the Hindu Marriage Act, may still be considered in conjunction with other factors. However, cruelty, as explicitly provided under the Act, constitutes a valid ground for dissolution of marriage.
14.	CRA/1299/2011	16.11.2019	Devendra Singh Vs. State of M.P.	The Hon'ble High Court has differentiated between Section 302 and Section 304 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) by interpreting Exception 4 to Section 300 of the IPC. The Court held that a culpable homicide committed without premeditation, and in the heat of passion during a sudden fight, cannot be categorized under Section 302 IPC, which pertains to murder. Instead, such an act is more appropriately considered under Section 304 IPC, which deals with the offense of culpable homicide not amounting to murder.

15.	M.Cr.C/34868/2020	19.12.2022	Devendra Vs. State of MP and Anr.	The Hon'ble High Court, in its interpretation of Section 375 of the Indian Penal Code, has observed that a mere breach of promise does not amount to a false promise. For a promise to be considered false, the person making the promise must have lacked the intention to fulfill it from the outset. In other words, the intention to uphold the promise is essential to distinguish a genuine promise from one that is made with no intention of being performed.

16.	M.Cr.C/19014/2021	08.07.2024	Jayesh Mourya Vs. State of M.P. and Ors.	The Hon'ble High Court has drawn a distinction between the offense of rape and consensual sexual relations. It has directed that a careful examination be conducted to ascertain whether the victim genuinely intended to marry the accused or harbored malafide intentions by making a false promise of marriage. Furthermore, the Court has differentiated between a mere breach of promise and the deliberate act of making a false promise with no intention of fulfilling it.

Ahmed Almakki Alias Ahmed vs The State Of Madhya Pradesh 2024:MPHC-GWL:22210

(The Ahemad Almakki case revolves around a foreign national who was detained in India due to issues regarding his citizenship status. He was apprehended on 21/09/2014 by the police at Padav Police Station, Gwalior, under suspicions of illegal immigration. Subsequently, he was prosecuted under Sections 14(3)(2) of the Foreigners Act, 1946, and Section 3 of the Passport Act, 1920, and sentenced to three years of imprisonment. Upon completing his sentence in 2017, his nationality remained unverified, leading to his continued detention at Central Jail, Gwalior, in a temporary detention center.

Despite repeated inquiries, the Saudi Arabian Embassy identified him as a Bangladeshi national, but the Bangladesh High Commission failed to confirm his citizenship. In 2018, he escaped from detention but was rearrested in Hyderabad and convicted again under the Foreigners Act. Following the completion of his second sentence in July 2021, he remained in detention due to lack of official confirmation of his nationality, prolonging his legal limbo. His case raises concerns regarding illegal immigration, diplomatic verification, and human rights violations in prolonged detention cases.)

termination of her daughter's pregnancy. The court noted that the district court had earlier rejected the plea due to the absence of medical documents, which it found to be an insensitive approach. After reviewing the medical report confirming the victim's fitness for termination, the court permitted the procedure and directed authorities to ensure no procedural delays. Additionally, it laid down guidelines for handling similar cases in the future to expedite the process and protect the rights of victims.

2. CRA No. 01157 of 1999- Chandrakant Patidar vs. State of Madhya Pradesh

The Madhya Pradesh High Court at Indore allowed the appeal of Chandrakant Patidar, who was convicted by the trial court under Sections 366 and 376 of the IPC. The case involved allegations that the appellant had kidnapped and raped a 16-year-old girl in 1998. The High Court found that the prosecutrix was above 18 years at the time of the incident and that there was no conclusive evidence of coercion. It noted

	inconsistencies in her statements and observed that she had willingly traveled with the appellant. Based on these findings, the court set aside the conviction, acquitted the appellant, and ordered the refund of the fine amount. 3. CRA No. 05380 of 2022- Dinesh Korku vs. State of Madhya Pradesh The order pertains to a criminal appeal filed under Section 14-A(2) of the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, challenging the rejection of bail by the Special Judge. The appellants were accused in a murder case and had absconded for nearly four years before being arrested. The trial court denied them default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C., citing a Bombay High Court precedent. However, the High Court of Madhya Pradesh ruled in favor of the appellants, emphasizing that the right to default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. is fundamental and cannot be denied based on absconding. Consequently, the appeal was allowed, and bail was granted.

	Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, and various IPC sections against officials of Indore Municipal Corporation. The petitioners argued that no prima facie case was made out and that prosecution sanction was invalid or absent. The High Court of Madhya Pradesh held that there was sufficient material to frame charges and that sanction by the Law and Legislative Department was valid. It also ruled that sanction under Section 197 Cr.P.C. was not required for offenses involving corruption and misuse of office. The revisions were dismissed.

6. CRR No. 03259 of 2022- Indrajeet vs State of Madhya Pradesh

The judgment pertains to a criminal revision petition challenging the trial court's order framing charges under Section 376(2)(n) IPC against the petitioner. The prosecution alleged that the petitioner engaged in a physical relationship with the complainant under the false pretext of marriage while being in a relationship with another woman. The court held that misleading a person into sexual relations by falsely promising marriage constitutes a "misconception of fact," vitiating consent under law. Published by SCC, Manupatra, MPLJ, etc 7. 2025 SCC OnLine MP 545- Amit Rathore vs. State of Madhya Pradesh 8. 2025 SCC OnLine MP 473- Golu vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 9. 2024 SCC OnLine MP 8878- Vicky Chouhan vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 10. 2024 SCC OnLine MP 8064- Narendra Singh and Others vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 11. 2024 SCC OnLine MP 5334- Rambabu Meena vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 12. 2024 SCC OnLine MP 2435- Mahesh Panchal vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 13. 2023 SCC OnLine MP 6803- Arjun Rajput vs. State of Madhya Pradesh. 14. 2023 SCC OnLine MP 6452- Nawab
