(Tejpal s/o Chandan Yadav

Versus

The State of Madhya Pradesh)

Indore, Dated 23.09.2020

Mr. Maqbool Ahmed Mansoori, learned counsel for the applicant.

Mr. Shashank Sharma, learned Panel Lawyer for the non-applicant / State of Madhya Pradesh.

They are heard. Perused case diary / challan papers.

This first application under Section 439 of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 has been filed by applicant, who is implicated in connection with Crime No.261/2020 registered at Police Station Nagda, District Ujjain (MP) for offence punishable under Sections 363, 366 and 376 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and also under Section 3 read with Section 4 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offence Act, 2012.

The applicant is in custody since 31.05.2020.

As per prosecution case, on the basis of the allegations made by the prosecutrix regarding abduction and commission of rape, the case has been registered against the present applicant.

Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the applicant is a young boy aged about 21 years; he is innocent; and he has been falsely implicated in the present crime. Although the prosecutrix is a minor girl aged about 16 years and 8 months at the time of alleged incident, however, she has not made any allegation against the applicant regarding abduction and / or commission of rape in her statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 before the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Nagda, District Ujjain (MP). The applicant is in custody since 31.05.2020. The investigation is over and charge sheet has already been filed. There is no possibility of his / her absconsion or tampering with the evidence, if enlarged on bail. Conclusion of the trial will take sufficiently long time. Under these circumstances, learned counsel for the applicant prays for grant of bail to the applicant.

Learned Panel Lawyer for the non-applicant / State of Madhya Pradesh opposes the bail application by contending that no sufficient ground is made out for releasing the applicant on bail; hence he / she prayed for rejection of the application.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties, but without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the application filed by the applicant is allowed. The applicant is directed to be released on bail upon his / her furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only) with one solvent surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of trial Court, for his / her regular appearance before the trial Court during trial with a condition that he / she shall remain present before the Court concerned during trial and shall also abide by the conditions enumerated under Section 437 (3) of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973.

This order shall be effective till the end of the trial, however, in case of bail jump, it shall become ineffective.
