cancellation of the subject contract with imposition of an inter alia leviable penalty does not fall under the purview of blacklisting/removal/suspension /banning and the Railways does not intend to blacklist/remove/suspend/ban the petitioner based on the subject contract. It is further stated that in case the petitioner is otherwise eligible, it would be open to petitioner to participate in any subsequent tender that may be floated by the Railways.

In view of the above, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn.

It is clarified that petitioner would be at liberty to participate in any tender being invited by the respondents/Railways without being influenced by the cancellation of the subject tender and/or imposition of any penalties, that may be imposed by the respondents in respect of the subject tender.

It is, however, clarified that in case any coercive step is taken by the respondents against the petitioner, it would be open to the petitioner to defend the same in accordance with law.
