ORDER

Per. Justice Vivek Agarwal

After arguing at length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he was not posted as Vice Chancellor when his daughter-in-law was given appointment by the Board of Governor. It is submitted that petitioner has submitted relevant documents to show that he was not working as Vice Chancellor at the relevant time, but I.O. is not taking them into consideration.

2. Shri Sanjay Sarwate, learned counsel appearing for respondent submits that a copy of documents be submitted to the I.O. through learned counsel and he will direct the I.O. to take them into consideration at the time of investigation before filing of charge-sheet.

3. In view of such undertaking furnished by Shri Sanjay Sarwate, counsel for respondent, we direct that let relevant documents be filed within seven days from today through Shri Sanjay Sarwate and I.O. is expected to act as per undertaking furnished by Shri Sanjay Sarwate.

4. We have not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case.

5. In above terms, this miscellaneous criminal case is disposed off.
